

September 14: The Extremist, Luke 22:35-38; Matthew 26:47-56:

Dr. Jim Wooten, preaching

THE Baptist Church of Beaufort

A Community with Heart

One of the things I like about BCOB...

BCOB will always be "home" to me. No matter how far or how long I've been away, when I come back, the people, the music, the beautiful sanctuary all speak to me and say "welcome home."

Sow What?

JEFF PETHEL,
ASSOCIATE PASTOR IN FAMILY MINISTRIES

During a recent youth activity teenagers were asked to "cross the line" if some statements applied to them. Not one teenager was able to step across the line when asked, "Is your envelope prepared to give an offering this morning?" After some inquiry, the teens agreed that giving is still a value in their generation; however, they wanted to be reminded by their parents to prepare an envelope for tithing. Wow!

Galatians 6:7 reminds us to sow the kind of crop one expects to reap. So, let's intentionally sow. Be reminded to sow punctuality to Sunday Bible Study (9:45 a.m.) and Worship (11:00 a.m.). Sow examples of tithing preparation. Most importantly sow positive examples and words.

I challenge you to express three positive expressions about BCOB today. Here are mine:

1. Excited to see Leandra Boltin and Lauralee Townsend agree to provide new leadership by agreeing to serve as chairpersons for the Preschool/Children and Youth Ministry Committees.
2. Thankful Alan Williams and Debbie Marcil are greeting and helping preschool parents feel secure about leaving their children in the preschool area on Sunday mornings.
3. Joyful that our children are in Worship and utilizing the new worship bags filled with activities.

Sow what? Teenagers and children need us to sow. They are searching and asking us to do so!

During a recent youth activity teenagers were asked to "cross

There were twelve disciples... and one of them was Simon the Zealot. I'd like to say it was good planning on my part, but I think it was more Providential that the sermon series arrives at Simon the Zealot on the Sunday following 9/11.

As a Zealot, Simon was a proponent of violence to achieve a nationalistic agenda, to use whatever means necessary to eliminate enemies and collaborators alike in an ideological battle over land and sovereignty. He was an extremist at best; a terrorist at worst... and Jesus touched his life, soothed his anger, and brought him to the table. There at the table was at least one man Simon formerly despised and others he thought too passive. In the end, every disciples story is about what Jesus can do. Come Sunday and meet "The Extremist."

Sunday Morning Bible Study - 9:45 a.m. - 10:45 a.m.

Do you attend Bible Study on Sunday mornings? If not, give it a try! All groups meet at 9:45 a.m. and there are a variety of options, from gender-specific to age and stage groups, large groups to small groups, there is a place for you to get good Biblical education here at BCOB.

The full list of classes is available on our website at <http://www.bcob.org/whatwedo/education.html>

The Baptist Church of Beaufort September 21, 2014

600 Charles Street, Beaufort, SC

Free Concert at 4:00 PM

A one of a kind experience is in our near future!

PALMETTO BRONZE, a community handbell ensemble from the Charleston area, will be our guest artists in concert here at BCOB on Sunday, September 21, at 4:00 pm. After hearing them perform at Piccolo Spoleto this past May, we were eager to spread this wealthy musical experience to our community, too.

They will be playing a variety of musical styles to not only “tickle our ears” but to offer a visual feast as well. Don't miss their arrangement of the popular Let It Go from FROZEN! Our own Steeple Sounds ensemble will be joining them from the balcony for an antiphonal treat. All ages are encouraged to join this experience!

SEPTEMBER SILLY SUPPER

The WMC reports that the first ever September Silly Supper program was well-received. Here are a few comments from our guests:

“Lots of fun, Silly Supper was a Great Idea... wonderful treat & blessing...of course, the Food was Excellent... had a great time...thoroughly enjoyed the evening...loved the silly songs...and the hats... beautiful piano music...will come again...thanks for a lovely evening...great evening...very relaxing... good food, good music, good fellowship...let's do this again...songs were fun!...loved the meditation moment...meal was fabulous...thank you Mr. Steve Brown...Great fun, great decorations...pretty tables... Love purple...worshiping in fellowship with all the beautiful ladies made my day complete.”

Special acknowledgements:

Hillary Lathan, Pianist Extraordinaire;
Melanie Williams, Song Master;
Steve Brown, Gifted Super Chef;
Melanie Gallion and Madison Gallion, providing many of the gifts, greeting the guests, helping put up the decorations, etc., etc. Without them, nothing would have happened on September Sixth. So, THANK YOU for your expertise, your excellence in delivery, and your whole-hearted participation.
